SIGURD ANDERSON
GOVERNOR

PIERRE

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the World Day of Prayer, which had its beginning in 1868, has become a great unifying influence among God-fearing people throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, this year's plans for a World Day of Prayer on an international scale are more extensive than ever before; and

WHEREAS, there is a growing participation among the clergy, businessmen, farmers, service and professional groups, servicemen and children in this Day of Prayer; and

WHEREAS, there is a real need for man to turn to his God for strength; and

WHEREAS, the need for prayer by all men is especially needed in the complex world in which we live;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Friday, February 20, 1953, as a

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

and do urge all South Dakotans to observe the day according to their own beliefs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 10th day of February, 1953.
